

Workshops, Tea & Trunk Show with International Artist Stephanie Blythe

Fantasy, especially fairies, has always characterized Stephanie Blythe's astonishing work. Join this International Doll artist at the NC Museum of Dolls, Toys & Miniatures for two fun and creative workshops, a special exhibit, tea and trunk show. Stephanie's work has been featured across the globe including the Louvre Museum, on the White House Christmas Tree, Neiman Marcus, Geobel & Richard Simmons ...just to name a few.

Workshop Info

During the Silver Spoon Baby class you'll make a tiny porcelain baby nestled in a silver spoon, wrapped in textures and vintage leaves. Students will learn how to make a miniature ribbon rose, a miniature bow and a finished silver spoon baby.

The Mini Merbaby Workshop will make a tiny porcelain baby mermaid reclining in an abalone shell blanketed with a variety of tiny seashells. You will learn how to use special dyes to color the fabrics for your mini merbaby tail and assembly.
